

I am writing to you about the broadcast of LPFM. I listen to K-love on a FM translator because there is no other Christian radio station in my area. If your commission allow more LPFM it probably will not be Christian and I would not recieve it because I live at the bottom of a hill. I rather listen to christian radio than any other. It is music of peace instead of violence and as a mother that is what I want my kids to listen to.